“ You were my best friend forever, my confidant, rock, other mom, my son's other grandmother. You were always there for us, the most caring zanniest, intuitive person I know. People always flocked to you with their stories, and I always told you that you needed to hang a shingle out and charge admission. You helped anyone you saw that needed help. We talked 2-3 times daily and were out eating together and seeing bands play 3-4 times a week, and drank enough coffee to float many boats! We caught up on everybody and our memories the last 3 times we got to visit. I'll forever remember and miss you so very much! I loved you to death for 29 years. My Deepest Condolences to Chuck, Lynn, and Sandra, and all extended family. All of you are in my heart. Much Love & Hugs! 🙏❤️

“ I don't remember a time when Jean wasn't a part of my life. She was Mama's best friend for over 60 years and always there when we needed her. She was wise and funny and not afraid to talk about anything. I told her one time that she needed to write a book about her life. She said that everyone 's life was a book. Hers was just longer. Deni and Kime both said how much they thought of her. You could not help but love her. She will be missed but she will be remembered with smiles and love. Linda Jack Deni and Kime.
