“ Aunt Margaret such a beautiful lady A sweet soul. She would just laugh at me when we would speak on the phone. She thought me to work hard for what I got .She cook her food with love.She took care of her family with so much love.She was a hard worker at work and at home.She will be missed by our family, but we know she's in heaven with our family. Praying for everyone. We lost a good one We love you.
