Tribute Wall

“ Jake, Julie and Jon,

I just found out about Martha's passing. I'm sorry I was not there. I loved Martha so very much. She was an avid prayer warrior and true lover of our precious Lord.

I remember once when she went to the hospital for testing. She had to have surgery and there were many places questionable. Martha told me, "I can't go now. God needs prayer warriors." When the Doctor came out of surgery he told us he had witnessed a miracle. ,Martha truly was a beautiful example of God's love and up until just recently, I would call her and give her a list to be praying for. She was faithful.

I am truly blessed having known Martha. I know Heaven is rejoicing.

“ There are so many fond memories of Aunt Martha. Her yellow house on Court St., Saginaw, grinding hot dogs to make baloney sandwiches, driving to the Rick Ford dealership in Hemlock, MI to pick up her brand new 1960 Ford car. Her love of the Detroit Tigers especially Rocky Colovito and the time she took us to a Tigers game at old Briggs Stadium to watch the Tigers play the Cleveland Indians and then beating them in the 10th inning on a homerun by Charlie Maxwell. We ran out of gas on the way to Detroit and my cousin David had to wait at the gas station until we returned with the can we borrowed.

Wish we could be with you, Uncle Jake, Julie and Jon.

“ *She is away
Not gone forever,
Held close by special memories
Of times spent together.*

*Fondly remembered, deeply loved
And missed more than words can say.
Until we are together again,
She is just away.*

*We love you Martha. Keeping you Jake, Jon and Julie, in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##William and Mary
