“ We have been friends since we like 13 or 14. Had some good times as teenagers then we went out separate ways for a very long time, then I moved to South Carolina and found out you also lived here I was thrilled to death. After several years we finally got together and went camping and got to have dinner one time. Then life gets in the way of things and time goes by and a couple of months ago we talked about hanging out and now your gone. I'm so sorry Mary. Keep a eye on us up there. Love ya chic
