“ Aunt Alice has been a big part of all of our lives. When I was 16 and met her, she took me in her heart immediately. Through the years she has always been there. My children grew up calling her Grandma Alice. She is the most loving, caring and pure soul I've ever met in my life. She never judged and always had a huge smile for me. I will never forget you, Aunt Alice and I, myself, want to work on being more like you. Prayers on the porch each morning is something we shared that I didn't know about. I love you and in time will feel your loving hugs again.
The World lost a wonderful soul and God is dancing with you and rejoicing.
