“ Betty and family I cannot imagine the pain and grief you must be feeling at this time. I am praying that God holds you in his love and gives you a peace that passes all understanding. Although I am not able to be at the service I will be thinking about you all!

Dear Wendy and family, Although I can't be there to support you today, my heart and my prayers are with you. Its not Gods will that we understand all here in this life, but one day we will. In the meantime, His grace is sufficient. He sends His comforter to us. If we seek Him, we will find Him. This, I know for sure. Love you sweet Wendy!

“ Michael,
You are in my thoughts and prayers, your story will continue thru your Kids, look out for them and guide them thru this life as it will be hard for them to understand what is going on, look out also for the family members that are taking care of them so they can continue to guide them and support them thru it all.
I pray that we all find comfort knowing that your struggle in this life in over and that you are resting easy in the company of God and with all the love ones that left ahead of us and are by your side.

*Love you
Ladeana Mabe.*
