

Nancy German Noa

July 20, 1937 - June 13, 2023

Taylors, SC – Nancy German Noa went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, June 13, 2023 at the age of 85 years old. She was the daughter of the late Marion Van Sciver and William German, and the loving wife of Edward John Noa.

In addition to her husband, Nancy is survived by her daughters, Linda Ann Roman and Karen Ann Magge; her sons, John Anthony Magge (Jaquiline) and David Paul Magge (Yuko); her grandchildren, Rebecca Lynn Roman, Rachel Ann Monta, (Alex), Monica Lynn Antonucci, Alexis Riane Antonucci, Julie Magge, Jason Magge, Nicholas Magge, Luke Magge, and McKenzie Magge; and her sister, Helen Lawrence.

She is preceded in death by nine siblings.

For many years, Nancy supported several missionaries and her local church. She did not want them to go without the necessities. She doted over her husband of 39 years, being mindful of the food he ate, the supplements he took, and the length of time he spent outside working in the heat. She attended to the needs of her ailing sister, Helen. She also enjoyed calls and visits from her grandchildren, her special friend Ling, and her Pastor and his wife. She always looked forward to the family gatherings. She loved her Lord, and Charles Stanley was her favorite TV pastor. She cherished the roses and lilies Ed would plant for her and really enjoyed baking pizzelle cookies at Christmas.
