

Nancy Pruitt Roe

November 12, 1948 - July 4, 2017

Wellford – Nancy Pruitt Roe, 68, of Wellford, went home to be with the Lord Tuesday, July 4, 2017. Mrs. Roe was the wife of Sammy L. Roe and was the daughter of the late Roy and Lollie Turner Pruitt.

Mrs. Roe was a homemaker. She was very active in her church, Wellford Baptist, working with Acteens and Vacation Bible School Hospitality. She also worked with Girl Scouts. She enjoyed crafts and working with flowers.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one daughter, Dana Lynne Roe; three grandchildren, Lane Ryals, Luke Gillespie, and Kinsley Gillespie; a brother, Johnny Pruitt of Fingerville, and the “Yayas,” Lita, Cindy, Kim, Jackie, Frankie, and Brenda. She was predeceased by two brothers, Bobby Dean Pruitt and Pat Pruitt.

The family would like to thank DCI West for their care.

Visitation will be 7:00-9:00 p.m., today, Thursday, July 6, 2017 at Living Waters Funeral Home and Crematory. The funeral service will be 2:00 p.m., Friday, July 7 at Living Waters officiated by Dr. Carl Poole, and internment will follow at Good Shepherd Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Wellford Baptist Church Building Fund, 235 Syphrit Rd., Wellford, SC 29385.

“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Nancy three years ago when I began working with her at dialysis. We hit it off from the start! We were like old friends. I had the privilege of getting to know her and her family over these three years. She was a wonderful lady and a blessing to everyone she came across. Praying for you all during this time!
