“ Pam and I lived in the same apartment complex in the late 80's. We became instant friends and enjoyed playing pool volleyball, tanning, and preparing nice dinners. People who saw Pam noticed her exceptional physical beauty immediately; but when they got to know her, they learned that Pam possessed a deep inner beauty beside which her outer beauty paled. I learned of Pam's passing only today, three months after her service; so I have not sent condolences. Pam's surviving family, especially her son, will be in my prayers. I believe that we will see Pam in Heaven; until then, may God be with you.
