“ Red and Leona, we love you and all of Phillips family. Only those who have walked through the deepest of valleys can know the darkness & loneliness... and yet...there is a light in the darkness that begins to glimmer softly until it overcomes the blackest night and showers us with the light of love & caring. For a time our pain remains...but your, Phillip's and our God will remain forever to love and care for all of us.##imported-begin##Karen & Bobby Chapman / Frances Mason##imported-end##
