“ Jean,

I look forward to "catching up" around God's throne. I remember so vividly when you asked Jesus into your heart. In the meantime I will miss our chats on the phone.

I have never known another person with your sweet spirit. No matter what unfairness, distress, or abuse that came your way, you never reviled or rebuked; you never called names or cut anyone down. You kept your own counsel. You were sacrificially giving with your living space, time, money, energy, and love.

I am missing you.

“ To Bruce & family:

Words cannot express my sorrow for the loss of your mother. She was a nice lady and friend, and it was always good to see you and her shopping at Walmart so many times. It's sad and hard to believe that she won't be coming there anymore. I'll miss her. You and yours are in my thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

“ Until we meet again, mom Jean! I'm heartbroken to say the least. I have a very funny memory of you from the last time I visited, we were discussing Christmas gifts for the baby, when u said, without missing a beat that she liked "bubba bob", when u meant "sponge-bob", Dana and I laughed so hard we cried. You were a unique character of sorts, and I'm gonna miss you, also, watching all those TV shows together, discussing the different topics. You are with my sweet James in Heaven, and I will see you both someday there!! I Love You, and will surely miss you!!!! Love, Cassie###imported-begin###Cassie Jenkins###imported-end##
