“ Sheena and Michael, I am so so sorry for your loss. It just breaks my heart that y'all have to go through this. I never got to meet Presley, I always wanted to, but I know she was just a perfect beautiful little girl. Although she was just here with you all four short years, she has made an impact on your life and everyone that she knew that will last a lifetime. We don't understand why God took her home, all we know is that he is in control he knows what he's doing. We just have to pray for peace and understanding, and Just remember to breathe every day. Love you both so much, Glenda Buchanan.

“ We've known this precious family since they were very little through the church they grew up in. Michael & Sheena feel in love, married, and have a beautiful family. Most importantly, they have taught their children about Jesus and made Him center of their home. We may not understand the reasons of why, but sometimes we are not suppose to understand. This is something none of us can fathom. Just know, we are all on our knees in much prayer for all of the family. We all have been inspired by little Miss. Presley's pictures, videos and your family's lives and posts on FB and Instagram. You all will have a precious Angel looking down and watching over the family she loved so very much. Continued prayers always. We love y'all.
