

Raymond E. Sistare

December 6, 1950 - December 6, 2013

Spartanburg - Raymond Eugene Sistare of Spartanburg left this earth the same day as he entered it: December 6th, 2013 at Eden Terrace's Evergreen.

He was born December 6, 1950 in Spartanburg, SC
to the late Raymond and Kathyn Clark Sistare.

Mr. Sistare graduated from Clemson University and worked at Spartanburg Public Works as a Civil Engineer.

He was most proud of his children. He is survived by a son Stephen Sistare and a daughter Kristin Bunton (Husband, Jason Bunton and grandson, Jake). He is also survived by a sister, Emily Sistare Burgess and her husband Steve. Ray honorably served in the U.S. Army. He enjoyed being a pilot and the freedom it brought him. Ray didn't like riding donkeys that much. He loved his Clemson Tigers. During the last years of his life his spirit remained high and sense of humor never failed.

A celebration of his life will take place on Monday December 9 at 3:00 in the afternoon at Eden Terrace, 2780 East Main Street.

Kristin would personally like to thank all the staff at Eden Terrace for the love and care her family has received.
