“ Its almost been a year since you left us. I can't tell you how much I was mad at God and questioned him even tho I know I am not supposed to. It's just hard you not being here. We put the tree up and the kids were upset cause they always helped you put yours up. God mama I just miss you and wanna talk to you. I wished I just had 5 more mins with you. 💜💚💜💚💜💚💜💚💜💚

“ Mama.. Not a day goes by that you are not on my mind I can't say that it has gotten easier without you being here because it hasn't. I have just got used to me not being able to call you. To come and pick you up so you can spend the day with me and the kids. It hasn't gotten easier not hearing you say I love you baby. The tears don't fall as much. But your always on my mind. I had a dream about you last night you telling me that you are alright. I just wished God didn't need you so soon because I needed you a little longer. I was not ready for this. You were the only person I could talk to. The only person. I miss having that. I miss my best friend. My heart aches every day but I have to be strong for my kids. They say they miss you almost every single day. Even tho it's been pretty much a half of a year it still feels like it was just yesterday. You wasn't the best mother but you were the best for me. I wish I could have told you that. I love you beautiful and u will always be in my heart. Save me a seat. I can't wait to see you again. But for now I need to be here for my babies as long as I can. They need me because I am all that they got. I don't wanna leave earth no time soon because of them but I just wished heaven had visiting hours or even a phone. I love you mama. You are the best mama I could have ever asked for. Goodbye for now beautiful rest easy until we meet again.

“ I honestly don't know where to start. This is a hurt that I never knew existed. You were the most beautiful soul I had ever met and knowing your gone is just hard to come to terms with. I know you wouldn't want us being sad but not being able to say goodbye hurts. All the amazing memories I have with you will remain near and dear to my heart. You were like a 2nd mom to me! Im happy to know that you aren't in anymore pain and you can finally get the rest you desperately needed. You were definitely loved by so many and will continue to leave an impact on our lives. Give everyone love for us up there while your dancing with the Angels and mawmaw! We love you Soo so much Aunt Rita!

“Mama, I don't even know where to start. I miss you so so much. This was all so fast. You were my backbone. I could call you anytime and complain or just to talk. I have so many memories with you and thats what is helping me right now. I can't the hurt I feel. I know you didnt want me to feel this way. Me and your grandbabies miss you and wished you were still here. The kids loved you so much. I loved you so much. I know we had our ups and downs. I just wiahed i could talk to you again. You were everything I needed in a mom and bestfriend. Mama you are still with me, but right now i feel like im falling apart. I'm trying to be strong for you and my kids. I cant explain to you how hard it is. I'm still in shock over this. I guess God needed you more than me. I love you mama and I am going to try and make the best memorial I can for you. When I was depressed you were there for me. When I was happy you were there. I feel like i lost more than my best friend. Im just so hurt. I miss you mama more than words can explain. Please watch over the kids and I. I will forever miss you. I'm going to miss all the phone calls and you coming to stay the night. I love you BEAUTIFUL. I just wished I could have told you one more time. Give mawmaw and everyone else we know in heaven a big hug for me.! I love you beautiful. I miss you so much.

“ Rita was my Aunt. She was a beautiful soul. Goofy, blunt, and down to earth. She will be missed dearly. Lots of old memories of her from my childhood and adult hood, I have to hold on to... And to myself. The first time I ever heard of and tasted " snow cream" was with her and my mom once when we spent the night at her place when it snowed. I remember it plainly and recall that memory everytime snow cream is mentioned and when it snows. Just that 1 memory alone will keep her alive with me the rest of my life. I have many more but I wanted to share at least one. Please share at least one memory of her with me and everyone else. Covid has impacted us all this year but my Aunt deserves her life to be remembered, celebrated and shared. She was one of a kind for sure. Love you Aunt Rita!!!!
