“ We met Mike in Myrtle Beach a few years ago along with his wife Liz. We had rented an umbrella on the beach and they were right next to us. We began talking and became fast friends. We live in WV so we only got to see them once a year which we looked forward to every summer. He was such a great, fun filled guy and we will miss him. Prayers for his wife Liz and their family. May he rest in peace.

Love, Joe and Janice Pepe
