

Roger Justin Laude

March 14, 1927 - July 12, 2022

Greer – Roger J. Laude peacefully passed after a brief illness. Roger plied his talent as a highly respected commercial artist in the heart of Manhattan NYC.

Roger and his love, companion, best friend and wife, Eleanor traveled extensively. They were no strangers to tea in the far east, classic wines in Europe, Safaries in Africa, unique animal life in the Galapagos, the wilds of Alaska and Canada; and thousands of miles crisscrossing the USA in their conversion van. They loved to ski, hike, and camp. Roger loved playing with guns and growing tomatoes.

Roger was a proud WWII Navy Veteran. Although his Naval career was thankfully cut short by the end of the war, he often said, “I was ready to serve!” His activity, however, was pretty busy.

As a proud “plank owner” of a new ship – USS Donner-LSD 20, His duties included Bridge

Communications, Port Crane Operator, and at Battle Stations he commanded a battery of 20 MM

Cannons.

Roger is survived by a whole host of nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his lovely wife, Eleanor; and brothers, Paul, Kenneth, and Gerard Laude.

Details for a memorial service will be posted at a later time.

“ As his niece growing up we loved when Uncle Roger came over. He always entertained his nieces and nephews with great stories. We loved camping with him. He taught me how to paddle a canoe on Lake George. Such a great guy and great story teller. Love you.

“ Roger had a long, blessed life and was a dear to all he met. Also he hated fire ants and tried to rid the village of them. May He rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen

“ We will always be thankful to Roger for selling his beautiful home to us in Bradford Village. It was a pleasure to get to know him these past 6 years as well. It was amazing listening to him tell all about his life and how smart he was. We are blessed to have known him through our wonderful friends Bob and Anna Lawn.
