CV

“ Ruth and I met in high school in 1960. We became best friends and had many years of fun together. But, as life goes we drifted apart after we both married and started out families. I was so happy when we reconnected recently. I was looking forward to seeing Ruth and meeting George. But, instead my husband Tony and I are sending out heart felt condolences to all of Ruth's family. We are very sorry to hear of her passing, so I guess we will meet in heaven instead!!May God bless all of you and give you strength to get through this! My love and prayers are with you all!!!!
