“ I met Sam when I taught him in 1st grade at Wellford. Sam liked to get attention by running from me. He could scale a 5-drawer file cabinet better than anyone. He would not come down until he was ready. I loved teaching Sam. I learned more from him than I taught him. He showed determination in a way only he could. I send prayers and my condolences to Sam's family and friends. He wiggled his way into my heart. I loved him then and still do.
