“ Don, I did not recognize you when you came in the store and gave me the papers that had to do with Sandys celebration of life. I later looked at the pictures that were posted on her page and I recognised you. I dont' know what else to say. Dan.

“ I did not know Sandra very well. She came in my store one day about 6 or more months ago. She was speaking with my wife and i heard Sandra say something to her about the fact that she had cancer. Well I began to be attentive because I had, had cancer also. I came out from behind the counter to speak with her and her husband. While we were speaking I felt The Holy Spirit fall on us. We all were weeping and Sandra and I embraced. The Holy Spirit led me to pray for Sandra. I knew He was going to do something for her. Sandra told me that now she knew why God had told her to come in the store. I dont know what God did for Sandra but I know He did something. In my case He healed me. God led her in this place for a reason. Only eternity will tell. When she was in the store she placed a bracelet on my wrist, a black and white bracelet. A reminder about cancer. I did not take it off until I read Sandra's obituary today. I believe God gave Sandra strength to help her through her ordeal. God does not always heal us but when He is called upon He does respond. The Bible says that God does not want any one to perish but all should come to repentance. Maybe this little letter of remembrance is meant to give some one else a point in the right direction. I will never forget Sandra although we only met twice. Dan.
