

Timothy Wayne Mace

May 3, 1973 - October 7, 2025

Campobello, SC - Timothy Wayne Mace, 52, passed away on October 7, 2025. He was the son of Larry Mace and the late Linda Allison and the loving husband of Beverly Duncan Mace.

Timothy was known for his deep love of the simple joys in life- fishing at the best honey holes, collecting LEGO sets with a childlike enthusiasm, cheering for his favorite NASCAR drivers, and proudly supporting the South Carolina Gamecocks through every season. More than anything, he treasured time spent with his family, who were truly the center of his world. His warmth, humor, and kindness touched everyone who knew him. Whether he was casting a line on a quiet morning or hollering at the TV during a close football game, Timothy brought a unique spark to every moment. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his children, Michelle Pineiro (Steven), Kinsley Gray (Joshua), Madisen Mace, Austin Gillespie, Blake Mace and Ayden Mace; one grandchild Eleanor; and his siblings, Russell, Stacey, and Jesse.

“Baby, you are my happy, you are my life, when your soul left your body, you also took mine. I will forever cherish the amazing life we have, all the good times, all the bad. A bond like ours can't be broken, ours is a bond unspoken. The man you were to me, no one could ever even try to be. You are my person, my heart, my world and until I kiss your lips, hold your hand, hug your neck, and look into your beautiful blue eyes, I hope everyone knows that a twin flames never dies. I love you with my everything. I know you and God will hold my head up and make me get through the hardest thing I've ever had to do. I was happiest with you by my side but I will feel you, hear you, and feel your love for the rest of my days. To say I love you doesn't even come close to what is between us, no words ever could explain it. Until I see you in our next chapter know my heart from the bottom of my soul belongs to you. Life will never be what it was supposed to be. We worked hard to get to this sad end but I know you are here. The simple things to others will be the world to me because I know it's you reminding me that you love me. I will close my eyes and see you in my dreams, I will here you in every song we love, I will hold on to your soul until I can hold on to you again. Hold my love in your new heart. I promise I will find you my love. Love you till the end of all days not just mine. I love you
