

Vicki DeAnna Stidham

November 6, 1957 - January 21, 2024

Spartanburg, SC – Vicki DeAnna Stidham, 66, passed away peacefully on January 21, 2024. Vicki was daughter of Eula Cooper Blackshear and the late Charles Jerry Blackshear. She was the loving wife of Mark Stidham.

Born in Rockford, IL, Vicki was one of two children. She was a vivacious child who became a fun-loving woman who dedicated her life to the well-being of others. Vicki worked for many years, first as a residential counselor with Shults-Lewis Children's Home in IN, then as a director of counseling at Southeastern Children's Home in Duncan, SC. She went on to work until her health wouldn't allow it at Spartanburg Methodist College as their director of counseling. Vicki was a member of Hub City Church and loved to spend her free time reading, cross stitching, or simply supporting Spartanburg Little Theatre. She impacted many lives during the course of her career and will leave behind a legacy of love.

In addition to her husband and mother, she is survived by her children, Jacob Stidham (Hilary) of Cummins, GA and Jesse Stidham of Duncan, SC; her grandchildren, Chloe and Ansley Stidham; and her sister, Sherri Brewer (Robert) of Hickory, NC.

A memorial service will be held on February 3, 2024 from 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM at Hub City Church; 350 N. Blackstock Road Spartanburg, SC 29301.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Spartanburg Little Theatre; 200 E. Saint John Street Spartanburg, SC 29302.

“ Vicki was one of my heroes. She helped me through so many hard times. I loved her dearly. I have so many memories of her...too many to list here. She was always supportive as one of my supervisors at SECH. We connected the first time I met her. She was my mentor. She helped me on a healing journey that will positively impact me for the rest of my life.. Her legacy will live on in so many ways because she invested her time and love in so many people.
