with Kay most of those times. Such a wonderful Lady and I am “ You’ll be missed, Grandmother Kay. You always cherished family above all else and made a point to check in on everyone, making sure we knew we were always in your thoughts. Thank you for being such a wonderful travel companion while I was growing up and for always being so proud.

I’ll never forget your favorite song—the one you always loved for me to sing—was, “Grandmother, grandmother, I want some more of her.” I love you. Until we meet again.
