“ *Dear Joe:
I'm so sorry about Glenn. It came as a shock. I have such fond memories of our childhood, and visiting you all at Camp Croft, as well as trips to Old Fort to see Uncle Joe on "his" mountain. I hold Glenn dearly in my heart and extend my condolences to you and the rest of his family.##imported-begin##Janice Finley##imported-end##*

“ Glenn and I were good friends in high school, and started Clemson the same year. The ensuing years took us apart - getting married, going in the military, working in different states, etc. However, I never became "not his friend", we just didn't see each other often.
You have lost a loved one, I have lost a friend.
Our lives are not about what we are or the things we have at the end, it is about all the little things we shared with others along the way.
I will always remember Glenn and the friend he was to me.
My sympathy and kindest regards,
