“ I miss you so much son. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you. The memory of your smile keeps me going. You are walking with Jesus now, in my heart you still remain until I see you in that promised land. Love, mama.

“ Billy, thank you for being a great person and friend. We had good times working on the 41. You could fix anything. You spent a lot of time working on the car. And made a FB page for our racing. Miss you. Sad that you are gone way too soon. Love, Heath and family.

“ Billy's love of cars started with his cousin's barbie jeep. The two of them would ride until 1 battery died and i would have to replace with a fresh one. He would drive and Moni would ride holding the umbrella, with the music playing in the tape player. He would get stuck and yell on the toy cell phone for Uncle Charles to come pull them out. Our adventures to myrtle beach were always fun. He did love the bumper cars. My heart aches and I am reminded that grief is the price we pay for love. Rest peacefully sweet boy. Aunt Sonja holds you in her heart
