“ I was bout 13-14 years old when I bought my first dirt bike. It was not running good at all. Greg lived beside my Pa, George W. Camp, in the big white house. So I road it over and he showed me there was a screw missing out of the carburator, he didn't have one for it but told me to put my finger over it. I did and it took off like a bat out of hell and I know I must have had a smile from ear to ear. He was one of the best that ever will be. Daniel Camp
